

Chapter 1 Part 1

Sarah Louisa Bagley & George Calvin Murdock

Sarah Louisa Bagley and
George Calvin Murdock

George Calvin hurt his back lifting logs and as a result had fainting spells. He fell into the river while fishing one day and drowned.

Sarah Louisa was the second child of William Henry and Hannah Brunyer Bagley. She was born 5 Dec. 1863 at Millcreek, Salt Lake City area, Utah. Her brother William Harmon was born 9 Sept. 1861 and died 10 June 1862. Her father worked for awhile in the lumber mill set up by his father and brothers. After her Grandfather Edward Bagley died in 1868 the family which had grown to three children moved to Charleston, Utah where her father bought a farm and lived there the rest of his life.

There were eleven children all together. At age 17 Sarah Louisa married George Calvin Murdock, who was born in American Fork, Utah. They settled in the Charleston area.

Seven children were born to them. George Calvin b 18 Aug. 1881; twins were born 5 April 1885 that they named Joseph Stacy after George's father, and William Henry they named after her father. Joseph died on 20 April that same year. William, or Bill or Will as he was called grew up and was joined by Albert (Bert) b 15 Jan 1887; Ray born 11 April 1890; Nymphas Coridan b 17 June 1892 and Linsey E b 8 Jan. 1895. Linsey was born after his father died 27 July 1894 at age 32.

p 37 Bagley Book

*George Calvin Murdock =
Son of*

Buried in Charleston

Chapter 1 Part 1

Sarah Louisa Bagley & George Calvin Murdock

Sarah Louisa Bagley and
George Calvin Murdock

Sarah Louisa was the second child of William Henry and Hannah Brunyer Bagley. She was born 5 Dec. 1863 at Millcreek, Salt Lake City area, Utah. Her brother William Harmon was born 9 Sept. 1861 and died 10 June 1862. Her father worked for awhile in the lumber mill set up by his father and brothers. After her Grandfather Edward Bagley died in 1868 the family which had grown to three children moved to Charleston, Utah where her father bought a farm and lived there the rest of his life.

There were eleven children all together. At age 17 Sarah Louisa married George Calvin Murdock, who was born in American Fork, Utah. They settled in the Charleston area.

Seven children were born to them. George Calvin b 18 Aug. 1881; twins were born 5 April 1885 that they named Joseph Stacy after George's father, and William Henry they named after her father. Joseph died on 20 April that same year. William, or Bill or Will as he was called grew up and was joined by Albert (Bert) b 15 Jan 1887; Ray born 11 April 1890; Nymphas Coridan b 17 June 1892 and Linsey E b 8 Jan. 1895. Linsey was born after his father died 27 July 1894 at age 32.

George Calvin hurt his back lifting logs and as a result had fainting spells. He fell into the river while fishing one day and drowned.